Why we call Newport Beach Home

From the seven unique villages that make up Newport Beach to the largest recreational harbor on the west coast, learn why over 86,000 people call Newport home. There are many other locations along the California Coast where one could choose to live, however the Newport name has become synonymous with quality of life. Is it the world class restaurants and hotels; the abundance of things to do or the pristine beaches and lifestyle that have made Newport a destination for people around the world and why we call Newport Home.

Join us November 10 as Richard Luehrs, President and CEO of the Newport Beach Chamber of Commerce will talk about the unparalleled benefits of Newport Beach. Questions and answers will follow his presentation.
