Monthly Membership Meeting

Water, Water, Everywhere?

Newport Beach is a water-oriented city. Newport Beach residents enjoy high quality City-provided water. But California is currently experiencing a multi-year water shortage.

Where do we get our water? Where is it stored? What happens when the agencies that provide our water tighten the spigot? Is it time for a water conservation ordinance in Newport Beach?

George Murdoch is the Utilities Department Director for the City of Newport Beach. He will be our guest speaker. He will address all the water related issues we are currently experiencing and tell us what we can expect in the future.

Questions and answers will follow the presentation.
